

Hello Kreative Kidz Member,

Kreative Kidz, hope you have had a wonderful summer holidays.

WOW, your work during the summer days was amazing! Hope you all enjoyed the seaside theme and the special visit from the Ice Cream Man.

There has been a change to programme, the Music Man will be attending on Saturday 8th September. Apologies for any confusion.

We have lots in store for you this month, I know Julie is busy sewing together your amazing school bags and we will be making cakes on 22nd September.

Thank you for your continued patience with the payment system. We have now hopefully sorted this all out and you can ring the office anytime between 9-5 Mon-Fri to book onto one or more sessions in advance.

To book onto a session please call Young People's Services on 01952 385119 or email A2Abookings@telford.gov.uk

Please take a look at the attached activity programme.

Good Luck in your new class hope you all settle in just fine. Looking forward to seeing you all very soon.

Kind Regards,

Holly

Holly Wells

Service Leader.

| Date         | Description of art form and activity | What we will be doing                                                                                                                                                                       |
|--------------|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Sep8th   | Music Man                            | Singing and dancing along to the music man!                                                                                                                                                 |
| 22ndSept | Naughty but nice, cake making        | Let's get baking. Design and make your own box / bag, take your lovely cakes home to share.                                                                                                 |
| Oct6th   | Mocktails                            | Make nonalcoholic cocktail, designs and make cocktail sticks etc. to make drinks look attractive.Invite parents to come along towards end of session, for tasting.                      |
| 20thOct  | Halloween Crafts                     | Spooky fun for Halloween using Collage, paper crafts and upcycling,                                                                                                                         |
| Nov3rd   | Bonfire fun & food                   | Bonfire night crafts, look at the history of Guy Fawkes.Look at traditional food, make baked potatoes for snack time.                                                                   |
| 17thNov  | Slumber Film dayMini film fest.  | Come along bring your pillow / cushion. Make popcorn, and watch Slide show of Kreative Kidz, and short artistic films, produced by arty party. Invite parents to join us for the last hour. |
| Dec1st   | Christmas Crafts                     | Creating Christmas decorations to decorate the hall for our Christmas party                                                                                                                 |
| 15thDec  | Christmas Party                      | Dancing and games with friends, food and drinks.                                                                                                                                            |

*NB – Correct at time of writing if we need to change the programme we will notify parents who have already booked.

