Direct Payments Advisory Service

What are direct payments?

Direct payments are a method of funding given to people who need to use social care services, but would prefer to use the money to organise their own care.

Direct payments gives service users greater choice, flexibility and independence.

How can I get help?

POhWER's Direct Payments Advisory Service is here to answer your questions and assist you with setting up and managing your care using direct payments.

We can provide:

- Telephone advice and information,
- Online fact sheets,
- One-to-one support from our specially trained Direct Payments Advisors.

Our service is free, confidential and independent.

POhWER's Direct Payments Advisory Service can offer support and guidance on issues including:

Employment

- Recruiting a personal assistant - including writing a job description, conducting a criminal record check and interview guidance,
- Employment law - including health and safety, sick pay, writing a contract and arranging insurance,
- Training - how to be a good employer.

Finance

- Tax - including registering with the Inland Revenue,
- Payroll - including setting up your own payroll or accessing our system, payslips and timesheets,
- Keeping records - including holiday, sick and tax forms,
