Section E – Outcomes

This section sets out the outcomes sought for the child/young person, including outcomes for adult life. Arrangements for the setting of shorter term outcomes will be made by the education or training provider.

Long Term Outcomes will be reviewed on at least an annual basis with the child, parents and any professional s involved with the child.

Shorter Term Steps will require more frequent monitoring by the education or training provider and will be reviewed on at least a termly basis.

This review will be organised by the educational provider the child/young person is accessing. These outcomes will be shared with Xyz and his/her parents/carers.

These outcomes represent reasonable and aspirational targets, taking into account progression guidance given their current educational levels.
