

Parents hopes and aspirations for Billy...

For Billy to be able to communicate back to his parents, and others, in a more positive way.

For Billy to enjoy his play, with many opportunities to be outside, particularly at the park or beach.

For Billy to become more independent.

For Billy to attend a specialist placement that meets his individual needs.